An Honorable Event

Veterans Day weekend at the Heritage Center was a success. Michael Palmer attended the event and issues a note of thanks to Chuck Hillestad, the YCHS President. Michael is the son of Ned Palmer. Ned was a P.O.W. in WW II, had a dairy farm east of Lafayette, and was the postmaster in Dayton. Framed above a display case at the Poling Museum is a copy of The News-Register military section article which details his harrowing experience.

Handmade Holidays at the Heritage Center

Our annual Handmade Holidays event promises to be the best ever this year. Not only are there handmade gifts and vendors as far as the eye can see, but the Kelchner Kitchen will be open for dining, silent auctions, tree auctions, raffle tickets, Ye Ol’ Sweet Shoppe, carolers alongside a player piano, and of course Santa.

Me, I’m not missing this one and I’ll be proud to give locally handmade gifts to friends and family. Pretty sure I can get all my Christmas shopping done right here today. There’s about 78 vendor booths and Handmade Holidays!

The Activities & Events Committee is to be congratulated for another fine Night at the Museum. This is the third year and attendance continues to grow. There was lots of delightful Halloween things to do throughout the museum for both adults as well as their kids. On top of that, it managed to make money for the Society as well. Well done.

Congratulations as well to the Heritage Center Operations Committee. The new kitchen is not only now functional, the complex has a new public address system in place which allows us to broadcast announcements, music and anything else to the interior of any and all of the buildings there. That should prove helpful not only during events, but the other times when just restoration or maintenance work crews are there. Special recognition should go to Chuck Rogers and Cliff Watts for acquisition and quick installation of the new system.

It is worthy to note the HC Committee recently received yet another major donation. It was earmarked to benefit our event efforts. As you may have noticed, the table and chairs we have been using was an uncomfortable hodgepodge collected over time and starting to showing the wear and tear. Fortunately, an anonymous donor, a very generous one I might add, made possible purchase of 150 brand new stackable padded chairs, plus 12 new tables, and the carts to move everything to and from storage. The uniform look and brand new chairs make us look much more professional which should be great for our general rental efforts, not to mention benefit our personal posteriors when we attend things like the monthly general meetings and historical lectures.

Several other monetary donations have come in. Those who have permitted mention of the donor names include donations by the Klaus family in memory of John Klaus and separately by the Kadell family and others in memory of Vince Howard. This might be a good time to mention it is coming up on the end of the income tax year. If you make a donation to the Society yourself, it is tax deductible.

The YCHS will be collecting auction items and Christmas ornaments up to the day of the event. We can also use your help as a volunteer in the Mercantile, Ye Ol’ Sweet Shoppe, with raffle sales and the auction or baking cookies and treats for our guests.
There is other progress to report such as on the new highway sign. You might have noticed the new metal structure along Hwy 22 at the SW corner of our HC property. That is a windmill being erected which will hold our electronic sign boards.

By the way, both the HC Operations Committee and the Layfayette Museum Operations Committee are in need of more volunteers. Now that both complexes are regularly open Wednesdays as well as Fridays and Saturdays, staffing is critical. That will become even more critical once the electronic signboards at the HC are in operation. Attendance is likely to significantly increase. Plus, we are losing one of our hardest working and key volunteers at the Layfayette Museum due to retirement. Margie Owens has been a tremendous asset there and, among other things, been key in insuring the museum there stays open on those days. We deeply appreciate her efforts and we now need to find new volunteers to help fill the gap. Please contact Dave Rucker at volunteercoordinator@yamhillcountyhistory.org if you can spare some time to help out on any of those days. There are all kinds of jobs that need your services at either location.

We also need to put together a committee to consider the fate of our Poling Church building. According to the structural engineer reports we have received, it is in a dangerously deteriorated condition. It would not survive an earthquake. It might not even survive without the nudge of a major quake. Not only is the structure in jeopardy, so too are the valuable antiques showcased there. Even a partial collapse could prove calamitous. We are at the point where need some general contractors and/or architects to join a committee to consider the structural report, come up with estimates as to priorities for repairs and what they would cost. We need people with experience and expertise in those areas to help develop a report to the board on recommendations for how to handle the problems. So if you are a general construction contractor or an architect or have similar special skills, please volunteer or help recruit someone with those qualifications.

Hi Chuck,

Wanted to just send another quick note of thanks for your generous help in getting my dad’s interview onto CD’s. They’re now in the Library of Congress! If you go to the web site: www.loc.gov/vets and then click on the “Search the Veterans Collections” button you only need to then type in “Ned Palmer” and it will take you to his entry. The audio is not available online to listen to, so far as I can tell, but I’m hoping at some point it may be. At any rate, I’m just so very pleased to see the interview with him is preserved – and I thank you again for your help with it!

Hope all is well your way,

Michael

Cookies, Coffee and County History at the Miller Museum this December

There’s a song from a few years ago that starts “Marjorie, I’m always thinking of you Marjorie…” Remember that one? Well, there are lots of Miller Museum friends and volunteers that are going to me “thinking” of Marjorie Owens as she leaves the museum and enjoys a well deserved retirement.

Yes, Marge was a volunteer, but that title barely scratches the surface of her history working within the Miller Museum in Lafayette. Marge opened and closed the building three days a week for many years. Essentially opening the history of Yamhill County for all to enjoy. No one tells a better version of the Lafayette “gypsy curse” and tales of the Pioneer Cemetery than our Marge. Carrying on the work started by Ruth Stoller; collecting County history and information, adding file cabinets full of research material, and sharing it with others is Marge’s legacy.

However, there remains at our Miller Museum, an outstanding, dedicated group of volunteers ready and willing to carry on this tradition of education and preservation. We invite you all to stop in for cookies, coffee and County history. Share your story and we’ll share ours with you. Marge will be at the museum along with the rest of us for our Open House (or as we like to call it, our “Open Cabin”). Come on over and maybe, just maybe, Marjorie with answer one more question for you.

Open House at the Lafayette Miller Museum runs from December 18 to December 30, each Wednesday, Friday and Saturday during the hours of 10am to 4pm in Lafayette.

starter lessons at Pioneer Days

— Co-written with Gloria Lutz

The mission of the Yamhill County Historical Society Education Committee is to engage, share, and demonstrate the history and heritage of Yamhill County. To that end, we invite schools and homeschooled students to visit the Heritage Center in McMinnville and one of our premier programs Pioneer Days.

Pioneer Days serves our public, private and homeschooled students from all corners of the Yamhill County. This “living education program” is designed with a focus on history, including traveling the Oregon Trail and a view of a child’s life on the farm. We conduct a fun program that allows students to enjoy many of the activities children of 130 years ago experienced. Students attend the Hucheck (Cont. on page 9)
Election ballots for the YCHS open Board of Director positions will be mailed to all members this December. Please vote and return your ballot as soon as possible.

Walt Stahlnecker
I was born in Newberg and raised on a Century Farm located between Newberg and Carlton. I graduated from Newberg High School and attended Oregon State University. During my high school years I worked on several farms in the Newberg area. I worked for First Federal Saving in McMinnville for 40 years, retiring in 2015. Since retirement I have volunteered at the Heritage Center on Wednesday work days. I am currently co-chairman of the Shop/Restoration Committee. I also enjoy working in the saw mill, participating in the Operations Committee and the Accessions Committee and helping out with other projects at the Heritage Center. My other interests include playing Pickleball, taking care of our home and 2 acres and participating in the Community Christmas Cantata Choir. My wife, Jan, is also active in YCHS as a member of the Activities and Events Committee.

Jack Maxwell III
I was born in Baker, Oregon but at just a few months old we moved to Newberg, Oregon. I have lived in Yamhill County for thirty three years. I live in McMinnville with my wife and best friend, Vickie Maxwell, and have 5 amazing children. I am currently the Agency Branch Manager for American Family Insurance, Chairman of the Board for Provoking Hope Recovery Support, Chamber Ambassador for the McMinnville Area Chamber of Commerce, President Elect for the Newberg Kiwanis Club, Co-Director of the Better My Town Challenge. I love our county and am very passionate about the history of where I grew up and where my children will grow up and spend most of their lives. I have enjoyed playing on the vintage baseball team for the last two years. I am passionate about being of service to our community and to God. The rest is history!

Dave Rucker
Running for a second term as a Yamhill County Historical Society Board Member, this McMinnville born and raised son hopes to continue to represent our membership and follow the YCHS mission statement with each vote. I think my hopes and dreams for the Historical Society and the celebration of our heritage can be of service to the Society at large.

School, a one room schoolhouse moved from Yamhill to our Heritage Center grounds. Children participate in hands on lessons in candlemaking, woodworking, clothing washing and mending, leather work and music; all dressed in 1880’s clothing.

New this year to Pioneer Days is twelve fire starter kits, allowing students to learn how to build one of the primary building blocks of the pioneer movement, fire. This equipment and the new lesson plan has been a team effort with many dedicated YCHS volunteers involved with the Blacksmith Shop gang as the ignitors. Ike Bay started the ball rolling by donating the flint. Mike Beals made and donated the steel. Rod and Judy Peterson made the bags for the kits, and Cliff Watts purchased the oakum. Mike and Tim Duerfeldt taught the kids during Fall Pioneer Days how to start fire the old fashion way. A big THANK YOU to all those that made it happen.
TREASURER REPORT:
$6000 was taken in as restricted donations, for the purchase of the cars. Handmade Holidays has already brought in around $1100. The Night at the Museum funds covered all of its expenses. $6546.37 was donated for the sign project from an anonymous donor. Another donor will be paying for the new tables (12) and chairs (150). Membership dues are starting to come in for 2018. The O&M budget will be skewed this year due to the sign project, but it will be replenished in the 2018 budget.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT:
There are two Board positions that can be filled by appointment, a one year and a two year term. There are a couple people in the works to possibly fill these positions. Roy C. has agreed to be the Merchandising Committee chair. An interim Newsletter Editor has been secured by Dave R.

- Cliff W. reported that the PA system is in at the H.C. and working and should be completed soon. The Windmill Sign frame is going up this weekend, and should be completed by year end.
- Gloria L. has received the reimbursement check for the broken I-Pad.
- There is a need to form a committee for the Poling Church, to make a recommendation on how to proceed with it. Possibly publicize the need to help with the preservation.

MOTION#2
Sarah M. moved and Cliff W. seconded to approve the committee reports.
Unanimous

POSSIBLE BUSINESS:
- It was agreed upon to have all interested Board members participate in a tour of the facilities and collections. This will familiarize everyone with what the YCHS has to offer. And also an orientation meeting for the new and old Board Members. The tour will be at 9:00 on January 13th.

Recap of A Night at the Museum

The Heritage Center can now “Rest In Peace”. The 2017 Night at the Museum event at the Heritage Center Museum was a roaring success. Close to 500 visitors and volunteers braved the spooky pre-Halloween evening to witness the Museum come to life. This year, new scares were heard as additional elements were added to the Haunted Museum. Visitors were treated to a new Virtual Reality adventure as well as the crowd favorites from last year. The family friendly event boasted additional attendance and was touted as an amazing bargain at just $5 per car load. Make plans to include this event in your Halloween plans for next year happening October 27, 2018.

TREASURES

There is nothing like a good treasure hunt.

On Friday, November 6, Shirley Konkola, Lois Brookes and Twila Byrnes didn’t need a map or the end of the rainbow to find Saratoga’s upstairs room full of collected memorabilia and antiques that she stored in her Century Farm Home now occupied by grandson, Lester Sitton, wife Brooke and two daughters. We toured a newly discovered room of items to be moved to the museum for sorting and evaluation, then, being of a age where negotiating the stairs with heavy boxes was not in our best interest, we left them for Shirley Venhaus and her young crew to complete the move.

Among the artifacts discovered was a jar of marbles said to have been brought to Oregon by Rome’s father on the Hembree wagon train in 1843. Also located in this jam-packed room was a wagon jack that now is no longer lost.

We thank Brookes for saving us many trips up/downstairs stairs and boxes for information on some stored items. Unpacking will take a while but it will be most interesting for sure.

Twila Byrnes

SCHREIBER FAMILY AND MCCABE CHURCH

Phil Schreiber’s ready wit and easy speaking manner made his program about the McCabe United Methodist Church and Schreiber family history a delight, which was enjoyed by a large turnout at the Armit Methodist Church on November 10th. Interpreter with an air of speaking from relatives and others in the audience, his presentation culminated the progress of the McCabe congregation from a borrowed church in the mid 1910’s through the construction of their own building in 1886, to the sturdy, standing present day services.

The Schreibers (Phil’s great-grandparents) came from Niedersachsen Germany in 1872 and farmed their way across the United States, their descendants serving and settling in the McCabe area in 1907. Marriages into other pioneer families has produced church members— all related— of Cones, Myers, Doers, Hellkamp, Benson, etc. (But there are lots of blanks in the commentary.) A McCabe friendship quilt top was presented for the meeting from the museum quilt collection in many of these names.

With family memories woven into stories and descriptions of the church, Phil’s program was most informative and was highlighted by the donation to the church’s grandfather’s (Solomon Bender and Martin Schreiber) were married in Niedersachsen, Germany in December 1855) wedding dress which had been in the care of Florence Breidenstein, and his grandson’s (Mary Schreiber Kemler) wedding veil.

FACILITIES: YCHS operates two facilities: a museum and research library, and the Heritage Center. The Lafayette Museum and Research Library contains the historic Poling Church and log cabin which house an exhibit hall and research facility.
