Lafayette Locks, please contact me before that date. This will be

MCMINNVILLE AND YAMHILL COUNTY--about 1910

For years the Star Flouring Mills were a McMinnville landmark. A direct descendent of Newby's first mill, they were in business until about 1920. On the back of their business stationery they had printed pertinent facts about the city and about Yamhill County. Judging by the facts printed here, this was done around 1910.

MCMINNVILLE

Population 3,500 and growing.
County Seat of Yamhill County.

Seat of McMinnville College, a well-equipped educational institution.
Two substantial National Banks, never use clearing house certificates.
Two weekly newspapers, two magazines, two fine schoolhouses, two flouring mills, half dozen churches, many mercantile firms, several manufacturing concerns and room and business for more.
